WHY JAPAN NEEDS THE JESUS STORYBOOK BIBLE

By Rev. Shinichi Hirohashi

"The aim of most Bible storybooks printed in Japan has been to draw out moralistic lessons from the Bible stories. But sooner or later, the children realize that in their own strength, they cannot live like Jesus or the disciples. I have longed for a children's Bible storybook that would be profitable in child-raising and Christian education. I pray that The Jesus Storybook Bible could be published in Japan, and that a great number of children and their parents will read it, repent, and be able to clearly confess a faith that looks to the Lord."

NEW TRANSLATION PROJECT

Are you familiar with The Jesus Storybook Bible by Sally Lloyd-Jones? MTW-Japan recently established a publishing/translation committee, and our first big project, Lord willing, is to help get this valuable book translated into Japanese. Resources of this caliber are rare in Japan, where many covenant children (as many as 40%) end up falling away from Christ when they get older. You can be a part of helping the church in Japan by supporting MTW Japan with your PRAYERS (see below) as well as your generous financial gifts. Here are some specific ways you can get involved in making this vision a reality:

PRAY for the translation, editing, and printing. Our goal is to have the book on shelves in fall 2009.

PRAY for funding to complete the project ($20,000 will pay initial costs for 2,000 copies).

PRAY for the MESSAGE to go deep into the hearts of children and their parents.

GIVE - $10 pays for one copy. Perhaps your small group or children's Sunday School class would like to pay for 1, 5, or 10 copies.

GIVE to MTW Japan Publishing & Translating, account #92884. (Any excess gifts will be used for future translation projects.)
